

Fluent, an Oracle Marketing AppCloud Partner, Launches Application to Power Data-Driven Acquisition Marketing

January 18, 2017

New Acquisition Application Helps Marketers Identify, Target and Acquire New Customers Through Integration With Oracle Marketing Cloud

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 18, 2017-- Fluent, a cogint company (Nasdaq:COGT), Silver level member and Cloud Standard partner of Oracle PartnerNetwork (OPN), today announced that it has launched an acquisition marketing application now available on the Oracle Cloud Marketplace. This new acquisition marketing application helps marketers to seamlessly execute their customer acquisition and follow-up lifecycle marketing campaigns using Oracle Responsys, part of the Oracle Marketing Cloud.

Oracle Marketing Cloud provides chief marketing officers (CMOs) and their teams with data-driven solutions to simplify marketing resources and deliver more personalized customer-centric experiences across every channel to attract and retain ideal customers. These modern marketing solutions connect cross-channel, content, and social marketing with data management and activation, for enterprise B2B and B2C marketers on a single system of record. The Oracle Marketing AppCloud is one of the industry's most comprehensive marketing technology ecosystems, offering Oracle customers a broad set of marketing apps and data services to extend and optimize their technology investments.

Fluent's acquisition application enables Oracle Marketing Cloud customers to easily identify and target consumers with self-declared interests in specific brands, promotions or products. The application's built-in surveying capabilities and foundation in first-party data enhances marketers' ability to deploy opt-in data acquisition campaigns. With Fluent's acquisition application, marketers can now activate campaigns leveraging new customer data in real-time via the app's turnkey integration with Oracle Marketing Cloud.

"Fluent's precise targeting and unique ability to pre-qualify consumers before serving ads to them has enabled us to better acquire valuable customers and increase engagement at scale," said Michael Nuss, Director, Digital Marketing at Shoe Carnival. "The integration with Oracle Marketing Cloud ensures that we can seamlessly follow up with new loyalty club members."

Oracle Marketing Cloud customers can visit the Fluent listing in the Oracle Cloud Marketplace to install the application and begin implementing Fluent in Oracle Marketing Cloud.
